

Macquarie University

Macquarie Ancient History Association

HSC STUDY DAY

FOCUS: THE CORE, GREECE & ROME

A Study Day for HSC students on topics from the Core, Greek and Roman sections of the Examination Syllabus, offered by university lecturers and experienced HSC teachers

PROGRAM - SATURDAY 13 SEPTEMBER 2008

9.00- 10.00 – Lecture: Core: Pompeii and Herculaneum
Dr Jaye Pont, Macquarie University
(Jaye will report on her recent season at Pompeii and new developments)

10.15- 11.15 - Smaller group seminars led by experienced HSC teachers

Table with 3 columns: Core, Greece, Rome. Rows include topics like 'Economic life in Pompeii and Herculaneum', 'Minoan Society', 'Julius Caesar & The Fall of the Republic', etc.

11.30 -12.30 – Choose from three lectures:

- (1) Core: Political Life and Social Structure in Pompeii & Herculaneum
(2) Greece: Spartan Society: The Kings
(3) Rome: Behind every great man ...the life and times of Agrippina II,

12.30-1.30 All seminars repeated Venue: Building W5A

Cost: $25 – includes GST (four sessions) MAHA teacher members free

Parking $15 charged by Macquarie University

Advise numbers attending by Monday 8 September to:
Toni Hurley: Fax 9801.0027 email: toni.hurley@optusnet.com.au
Enquiries: Toni Hurley 9858.5219 and fax or email as above

Payment on the day: Cash or Cheques made payable to:
'Macquarie University' ABN 90952801237