

Macquarie University

Macquarie Ancient History Association

HSC STUDY DAY

FOCUS ON THE EGYPTIANS

A Study Day for HSC students on topics from the Egyptian sections of the Examination Syllabus, offered by lecturers from Macquarie University and experienced HSC teachers.

Saturday 17 May 2008

PROGRAM

- 9.00 am Lecture Changing Religious Policy in the New Kingdom
Virginia Stone, North Sydney Girls High School
- 10.15am Seminars Small group discussions on issues arising from study of:
- Personality: Hatshepsut
 - Personality: Akhenaten
 - Society: New Kingdom during the Ramesside Period
 - Hist. Period: New Kingdom to the death of Thutmose IV
 - Hist. Period: New Kingdom from Amenhotep III to Ramesses II
- 11.30 am Lecture The Role of New Kingdom Officials and their Relationship with the King.
Dr Susanne Binder, Macquarie University
- 12.30 - 1.30 Seminars repeated

Cost: $25 –includes GST (four sessions)
(MAHA teacher members free)

Venue: Building W5A

Parking $10 (per day) charged by Macquarie University

Advise numbers attending by Friday 9 May to:

Toni Hurley: Fax 9801 0027 or email: toni.hurley@optusnet.com.au

All enquiries: Toni Hurley: email or fax (as above)

Payment on the day: Cash or Cheques made payable to:
'Macquarie University' ABN 90952801237