

The Department of Ancient History is offering up to two merit based Honours scholarships worth $2500 each to students from outside the University who enrol in the Ancient History Honours year for 2008 at Macquarie. These Scholarships are associated with the Edwin Judge Fund.

Ancient History Honours may be done in a wide field of Ancient History encompassing Egypt, Greece, Rome, Early Christianity/Judaism and Late Antiquity/Byzantium/Silk Road. Papyrology and Numismatics are also offered. More details of the program are on the Department's website. Language background may be required in some instances.

Please send your academic record, CV, honours, thesis proposal and names of two academic referees to Anne Irish the departmental administrator: airish@hmn.mq.edu.au (02 9850 8833) by October 9th.
